

How to Buy and Sell Precious Metals Bullion and Rare U.S. Coins Through Coin Trader

One of our goals at Coin Trader is to establish long-term relationships with our customers. One way that we can do that is to help make each and every transaction as efficient, easy and successful as possible.

How to Buy Precious Metals Bullion from Coin Trader, Inc.:

At the time that you decide to make your investment, we will provide you with a price indication over the telephone. This price indication represents the real time pricing based on the market price for the precious metal bullion product at that particular point in time.

At this time, you should wire good funds or mail your check to Coin Trader.

When funds are received in our account, we will lock in pricing and confirm your order. This pricing is based on the current spot pricing at that particular moment and is the price that you actually pay for your precious metals bullion.

Coin Trader will ship your precious metal bullion products either 2-3 weeks or 4-6 weeks after your payment is received. On occasion, we may be able to expedite shipping based on availability. However, availability changes each day, so we can't guarantee expedited shipping.

Shipping and insurance charges range in price based on the size and value of the order and are added to the final purchase order. We have a $30 minimum shipping/insurance fee. Most shipping charges do not exceed $60.00, but obviously can vary on larger quantities.

Please be aware that your shipment will require a signature for delivery.

At this point, you send your precious metals to us using registered and insured U.S. Mail, signature receipt required. IMPORTANT: This is the only authorized method of shipping to Coin Trader, Inc.

We will confirm receipt and give you a locked-in price when the precious metals are received in-house by Coin Trader, Inc. This actual buy-back, bid price is based on real-time spot pricing in the market at that precise moment.

How to Sell Rare Coins to Coin Trader, Inc.:

When you request that we buy your rare coins, Coin Trader will issue you a bid based on the current market value for “sight-seen” coins. “Sight-seen” coins are coins graded and certified by the two leading and widely accepted independent coin grading firms: PCGS (Professional Coin Grading Service) or NGC (Numismatic Guaranty Corporation).

For all other rare coins, that is, coins not graded by PCGS or NGC, Coin Trader will only issue price indications and not firm bids

Once we have provided you with your firm bid or price indication, you must send the rare coin(s) to Coin Trader via registered, insured U.S. mail with signature for delivery required.

Once we receive your rare coins in-house, we will mail a check to you within five business days, or you are welcome to apply the value of the funds to another acquisition transaction of your specification.

We will be glad to exchange any coins for future acquisitions. In addition, we can assist you in consignment of your coins, secure auction services (either public or private bid), or facilitate grading submissions or resubmissions. Just ask your representative for details.
